(7) During US visit, we suggest Department, in unobtrusive way, be as attentive as possible to Prince. B1
(A)(5)

Member his staff has suggested would be appreciated if President's or other distinguished US physician could visit him New York to offer any desired assistance. Issuance diplomatic identity cards would be appreciated as would also any assistance authorities might be able extend to hold to minimum publicity re women in Prince's party, especially photographs.

For information re Prince's plans in US, suggest Department contact Minister of State, Ali Reza who expected join party in Italy and Ahmad Abdul Jabba, former Saudi Charge Washington now heading Prince's Diwana.

(8) If diplomatic identity cards are given members of party Embassy would appreciate being informed as to nature exemptions thereby granted, because casual reference such courtesy might turn tide in our current discussions re customs exemptions for American Consular and non-diplomatic Embassy employees this country (DEPTTEL 1171).
